

Global patient group funding

Meningitis Research Foundation

During 2018:

GlaxoSmithKline made the following grants to Meningitis Research Foundation (MRF):

- £60,000 Core funding to assist strengthening the patient voice & build partnership
- £25,000 Project funding for the development of the Global Meningococcal Genome Library
- £30,000 Project funding to support the development of a global meningitis data website

Our support represented 3.9% of their overall income.

During 2017:

- GSK provided sponsorship of £30,00 for a stand and symposium at the bi-annual conference
- GSK provided funding of £3,000 towards the cost of filming at The Meningitis Research Foundation Conference 2017
 - GSK provided £117,000 to support 'voice of the patient' programme for the prevention of meningitis
 - GSK provided £15,000 for a 3 day summit on 'A Global Vision for Meningitis by 2030 and an Action Plan to get there'

Our support represented 5.6% of their overall income.

UK/POR/0001/18 February 2018