Sweden patient group funding

Posithiva gruppen

Posithiva Gruppen (The Posithive Group, PG) is a nationwide non-profit, politically and religiously independent companion and support organization with the purpose of collecting HIV-positive men who have sex with men (MSM) for training, contact, strengthen fraternal relations, mutual support and psychosocial activities. The Board consists solely of HIV-positive members. PG is a member of the HIV-Sweden, the Swedish Association for HIV-positive member of the Disability Federation (HSO).

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2017:

- GSK provided a funding of 464000 SEK, to produce an educational movie for youths and the ad campaign “I can give you everything except my HIV”.

Our support represented 11% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Noaks Ark Syd

Noaks Ark Syd has over 25 years working with HIV & STI prevention, education, psychosocial support, counseling and advocacy. You can turn to Noah's Ark South if you are HIV positive or related to someone who is living with HIV, or if you have questions about HIV or other sexually transmitted infections. Noah's Ark South is part of the National Association of Noah's Ark and is active in Skåne and Blekinge.

We have supported this group since 2006.

During 2017:

- GSK provided a funding of 150000 SEK, for a project to increase utilization of HIV testing and sexual and reproductive health services (SRHR) services among migrants.

Our support represented 3% of their overall income
Hiv-Sverige is an umbrella organisation. They work for the rights for HIV positive people in society. HIV-Sverige’s goal is to:

- Work against discrimination of HIV positive people.
- Try to abolish negative attitudes against HIV positive people.
- Work for equal rights in society for HIV positive people.
- Improve conditions for HIV positive people.
- Promote HIV positive people position in society.
- Improve for HIV positive people to return to work life.

We have supported this group since 2009.

During 2017:

- GSK provided a funding of 119,275 SEK, for activities during Candlelight Memorial Day and World AIDS Day plus the arranging of a workshop for doctors and nurses.

Our support represented 2% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Reumatikerförbundet

Reumatikerförbundet (Rheumatism Association) have worked for enabling those living with rheumatic diseases to have an active life and supported research to find the solution to rheumatism mystery since 1945. They have a lot of knowledge about how it is to live with a rheumatic disease or disorder of the musculoskeletal system.

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2017:
- GSK provided a funding of 15250 SEK, for arrangements during International SLE Day.

Our support represented 30% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Posithiva gruppen

Posithiva Gruppen (The Posithive Group, PG) is a nationwide non-profit, politically and religiously independent companion and support organization. Their purpose is to educational people living with hiv to educatona activities, give support and offer psychosocial activities and create a forum for exchange of experience. They also work for the rights for people living with hiv and to increase knowledge about hiv in the Swedish society, including working against stigma and prejudice.

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2018:

- GSK provided a funding of 60.000 SEK, to deliver an information campaign about "smittfri hiv" at and around World AIDS Day 2018 by advertising in social media and in QX.

- GSK provided a funding of 285.000 SEK, for a project: "I can give you everything but my HIV".

- GSK provided a funding of 100.000 SEK for a project that Posithiva Gruppen (PG) held for the young people to get an increased knowledge of HIV infection.

Our support represented 9.7% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Hiv-Sverige

Hiv-Sverige is an umbrella organisation. They work for the rights for people living with hiv (PLHIV) in society. Hiv-Sverige’s goals are:

- Work against discrimination of PLHIV.
- Try to abolish negative attitudes against PLHIV.
- Work for equal rights in society for PLHIV.
- Improve conditions for PLHIV.
- Promote PLHIV’s position in society.
- Improve for PLHIV to return to work life.

We have supported this group since 2009.

During 2018:

- GSK provided a funding of 14,900 SEK for a project: "Candlelight Memorial Day".
- GSK provided a funding of 60,000 SEK for a "Workshop HCP Chemsex".
- GSK provided a funding of 46,500 SEK for a project on WORLD AIDS Day.

Our support represented 2 % of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Reumatikerförbundet

Reumatikerförbundet (Rheumatism Association) have worked for enabling those living with rheumatic diseases to have an active life and supported research to find the solution to rheumatism mystery since 1945. They have a lot of knowledge about how it is to live with a rheumatic disease or disorder of the musculoskeletal system.

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2018:

- GSK provided a funding of total 10580 SEK, for two arrangements during International SLE Day’s.

Our support represented 1% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Posithiva gruppen

Posithiva Gruppen (The Posithive Group, PG) is a nationwide non-profit, politically and religiously independent companion and support organization. Their purpose is to educational people living with HIV, give support and offer psychosocial activities and create a forum for exchange of experience. They also work for the rights for people living with HIV and to increase knowledge about HIV in the Swedish society, including working against stigma and prejudice.

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2019:

- GSK provided a funding of 54,127 SEK, for the project: "World AIDS Day 2019". A memorial service for everyone lost in AIDS, with speakers and performances.

- GSK provided a funding of 4,500 SEK, for the project: "Provsvaren ger inte alla svaren". A campaign to encourage dialogues about treatment and life for people living with HIV.

- GSK provided a funding of 230,000 SEK, for the project: "Jag har fattat grejen!". An event and campaign during PRIDE 2019 dedicated to raise awareness of the fact that treatment of HIV is preventing the virus to be transmitted.

- GSK provided a funding of 210,000 SEK, for the project: "Jag har fattat grejen!". An event and campaign during PRIDE 2019 dedicated to raise awareness of the fact that treatment of HIV is preventing the virus to be transmitted.

Our support represented 9.7% of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Hiv-Sverige

Hiv-Sverige is an umbrella organisation. They work for the rights for people living with HIV (PLHIV) in society. Hiv-Sverige goals are:

- Work against discrimination of PLHIV.
- Try to abolish negative attitudes against PLHIV.
- Work for equal rights in society for PLHIV.
- Improve conditions for PLHIV.
- Promote PLHIV’s position in society.
- Facilitate for PLHIV to return to work life.

We have supported this group since 2009.

During 2019:

- GSK provided a funding of 23.000 SEK for the project: "Heroes within the health care system". A half day-seminar to honor the Candle Light Memorial Day (17th of May 2019) and to put focus on the work of HIV-prevention.

Our support represented 2 % of their overall income
Sweden patient group funding

Posithiva gruppen

Posithiva Gruppen (The Posithive Group, PG) is a nationwide non-profit, politically and religiously independent companion and support organization. Their purpose is to educational people living with HIV, give support and offer psychosocial activities and create a forum for exchange of experience. They also work for the rights for people living with HIV and to increase knowledge about HIV in the Swedish society, including working against stigma and prejudice.

We have supported this group since 2007.

During 2020:

- GSK provided a funding of 180,000 SEK, for the project: "Informationsinsats 2020 Jag har fattat grejen! / Jag kan ge dig allt utom min HIV.". A campaign dedicated to raise awareness of the fact that treatment of HIV is preventing the virus to be transmitted.

- GSK provided a funding of 0 SEK, for the project: "Provsvaren ger inte alla svaren". A campaign to encourage dialogues about treatment and life for people living with HIV.

Our support represented 2.45% of their overall income.
Sweden patient group funding

Hiv-Sverige

Hiv-Sverige is an umbrella organisation. They work for the rights for people living with HIV (PLHIV) in society. Hiv-Sverige goals are:

- Work against discrimination of PLHIV.
- Try to abolish negative attitudes against PLHIV.
- Work for equal rights in society for PLHIV.
- Improve conditions for PLHIV.
- Promote PLHIV’s position in society.
- Facilitate for PLHIV to return to work life.

We have supported this group since 2009.

During 2020:

- GSK provided a funding of 44,000 SEK for the project: “Chemsex knowledge series with Stu Fenton”. The series consist of 4 films, and a very short instruction film. The purpose of the films is to inform about Chemsex is, how it can affect the everyday life, Chemsex in relation to HIV, and how to act when Chemsex becomes a problem.

Our support represented 1,49% of their overall income.
Sweden patient group funding

Nätverk mot Gynekologisk cancer

Nätverk för Gynekologisk cancer is a network of patients, relatives and more involved who spread knowledge, push for improvements and create debate about gynecological cancers.

- They support women affected by gynecological cancer by making higher demands on today’s health care.
- They work to ensure that the health care is more active with prevention and that all affected women should have access to optimal care, treatment and rehabilitation without any delay.
- They also work for more research.

We have supported this group since 2020.

During 2020:

- GSK provided a funding of 0 SEK for the project (the project was granted with 35 000 SEK but was later refunded back to GSK when the event was cancelled due to COVID-19): “Gyncancerdagarna 2020”.

The project’s objective(s) are Gyncancerdagarna and its duration is 20200420-20200428.
The project will consist of 4 different evening meetings.
The target audience is intended to be patients, HCP.
The roles and responsibilities of GSK and Patient Organisation are that the Patient organisation are organizing the evening meetings and GSK is funding it as one of four companies together.

Our support represented 0 % of their overall income