

Overview of support to patient organizations 2022 – 2024

---

astmaVereniging Nederland en Davos (VND)

The asthma Association of the Netherlands and Davos (VND) is a patient association for people with (severe) asthma. The association is committed to improving the quality of life of this group of people, by supporting research into guidelines and treatments, but also by initiating interaction between people with severe asthma.

We have supported this organization since 2022.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 2.500 of funding to support the Webinar World Asthma Day on May 7th, 2024.

Our support represented 1,3% of their overall income.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 508,89 of funding in a collaboration around a patient panel about severe asthma.

GSK also provided € 2.500 of funding for the production of the webinar 'Asthma and the dialogue with your caregiver', which VND organized with the goal of empowering patients to achieve ownership of their own asthma disease process.

Our support represented 1,5% of their overall income.

During 2022:

GSK provided € 5,000 of funding to support a substantive program component [discussion about care for people with (severe) asthma] of the celebration of the 125th anniversary of VND.

Our support represented 2% of their overall income.

Longfonds

The Lung Fund provides information, promotes interests, improves care, supports research, and provides services for people with lung disease.

We have supported this organization since 2008.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 25.000 of funding to support the 'Breathe Freely' project.

Our support represented 0,18% of their overall income.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 46.667 of funding to support the 'Breathe Freely' project.

Our support represented < 1% of their overall income.

During 2022:

GSK provided € 45.000 of funding to support the 'Free Breathing' project, in particular the sub-project 'Digitization of (the voice of) the patient', aimed at developing a community platform.

Our support represented < 1% of their overall income.

Nederlandse Federatie van Kankerpatiëntenorganisaties (NFK)

The (NFK) is the umbrella organization of nineteen cancer patient organizations. The organization represents the general interests and supports the member organizations by standing up for the interests of people who have (had) cancer, their loved ones and people with a hereditary predisposition to cancer. In addition, NFK collaborates with various parties in projects and programs to improve the quality of care and quality of life for people who have (had) cancer.

We have supported this organization since 2021.

During 2024:

No support provided in 2024.

During 2023:

No support provided in 2023.

During 2022:

GSK provided € 15,000 of funding to support the 'datamining: source of information for people living with cancer' participation project. Experiences of people living with cancer and their loved ones are essential for NFK and with this project NFK aims to enrich insights obtained through DJE (Donate Your Experience).

Our support represented <1% of their total income.

Nierpatiëntenvereniging Nederland (NVN)

The NVN is national association of and for people with chronic kidney damage, their loved ones and kidney donors.

We have supported this organization since 2023.

During 2024:

No support provided in 2024.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 300 of funding to support production of a patient video.

Our support represented < 1% of their overall income.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

NVLE

The NVLE is a national association for people with lupus, APS, scleroderma and MCTD.

We have supported this group since 2016.

During 2024:

No support provided in 2024.

During 2023:

GSK provided a core funding of € 1151,46 for collaboration on the organization of a patient panel on the subject of SLE (systemic lupus erythematosus).

Our support represented <1% of their overall income.

In 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

Stichting ItsME

The Stichting ItsME raises money to enable scientific research in the fight against encephalitis and stimulates awareness/knowledge about encephalitis in general and among (GP) doctors, so that a correct diagnosis can be made more quickly.

We have supported this organization since 2023.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 5500 of funding to support the fellow sufferer's day on January 13, 2024.

Our support represented 2,5% of their overall income.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 4500 of funding to support the fellow sufferer's day on January 21, 2023.

Our support represented 2,3 % of their overall income.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

Neuspoliepen Syndroom

Patiëntenvereniging Neuspoliepen Syndroom (CRS+NP) is there for people with chronic inflammation of the mucous membranes of the nose and paranasal sinuses. Their goal is to inform expertly and broadly about cause of the condition, impact on patient's lives, possible treatment methods and medical developments, and act as a connector between fellow sufferers.

We have supported this organization since 2024.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 4.829 of funding to raise awareness for CRSwNP (nasal polyps syndrome) and treatment options.

Our support represented 24% of their overall income.

During 2023:

No support provided in 2023.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

Stichting Olijf

From an independent position, the Olive Foundation is committed to prevention, research, information, peer contact and advocacy for patients with gynecological cancer.

We have supported this organization since 2021.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 3.369 of funding to support the uterine cancer campaign around Month of gynecological cancer.
GSK provided € 3.458 of funding to support developing and implementing awareness around World Ovarian Cancer Day (May 8th, 2024)

Our support represented 3,15% of their overall income.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 10,000 of funding to support an ovarian cancer awareness campaign. The foundation collaborated on this with a media agency.
GSK provided € 5,000 of funding to support the Olijf congress day on October 7th, 2023: 'Gynecological cancer: new developments & late consequences.'

Our support represented 7,3% of their overall income.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

Stichting Pijn na Gordelroos

The Pain after Shingles Foundation was established as a specific point of contact and action platform for people dealing with shingles and its possible chronic consequences, especially post-herpetic neuralgia. Their mission is to improve the well-being of these patients and give a voice to their experiences.

We have supported this organization since 2024.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 4774,66 of funding to support them with creating a website for their organization.

Our support represented 29% of their overall income.

During 2023:

No support provided in 2023.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022

Vereniging samenwerkingsverband Pijnpatienten naar een stem (SWP)

The SWP is a non-profit organization of volunteers from different patient organizations related to chronic pain.

We have supported this organization since 2023.

During 2024:

No support provided in 2024.

During 2023:

GSK provided € 1919,80 of funding to support the webinar 'Post-Herpetic Neuralgia'.

Our support represented 36% of their overall income.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.

Stichting Hematon

Hematon is the patient organization for people with blood, bone marrow, or lymph node cancer.

We have supported this organization since 2024.

During 2024:

GSK provided € 2000 of funding to support the creation the Hematon Magazine

Our support represented 0,2% of their overall income.

During 2023:

No support provided in 2023.

During 2022:

No support provided in 2022.